

Rhett Foundation Provides $100,000 Gift to TUSPM

ALPHARETTA, GA - December 26, 2017 - The Rhett Foundation has announced a $100,000 gift to the Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine (TUSPM) earmarked for several student-related initiatives, among them the refurbishment of the School's student study lounge.

Drs. Brad Bakotic and Dean John Mattiacci

The Rhett Foundation was founded in 2017 by Bradley Bakotic DO, DPM and Jody Hackel, MD for the Advancement of Podiatric Medical Education and as a means to give back to the underserved world of lower extremity dermatology education.

To learn more about The Rhett Foundation, visit www.rhettfoundation.org

###